

Complete this form if you are NOT seeking admission based on GPA of 2.8 or higher.

I am NOT seeking admission based on my cumulative GPA. I am seeking admission based on a timed writing test and consideration of my academic record and goals.

I have completed at least 39 credits. I understand that the timed, proctored writing test will be administered in the Journalism Department within the first five weeks of the semester. I understand that the test is given only once per semester.

1. Are you currently in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences? If not, you must submit a Program (School /College) Change Form with your application. We will supply the advisor's name. [Please Note: Students in ACES must submit this form.]

2. Are you currently a pre journalism major? Yes No

3. Do you intend to do a double major? Yes No

If so, have you already declared a double major? Yes No

If you are uncertain of your status, please check your PeopleSoft report.

I have attached copies of all pertinent college transcripts.

- Each student must attach his or her UConn transcript. A printout from PeopleSoft is acceptable.
- Transfer students who are applying with substantial or all credits from other schools must also include transcripts from those schools.

I have attached a typed essay (three pages or fewer) that can help the admissions committee understand my academic record and my academic and career goals.
