

Journalism Department Scholarship Application

Please answer all the questions below (don't forget the questions at the end) and submit this form as a PDF along with the requested attachments in a single email with the subject line "JOUR Scholarship App" to Prof. Mike Stanton at mike.stanton@uconn.edu. Please note that only applications sent as PDFs will be considered.

Name:

NetID:

Email:

Phone number:

Overall GPA:

GPA in Journalism Courses:

Please submit the following documents as attachments:

- A copy of your unofficial transcript
- A cover letter/essay of no more than 500 words describing why you are good candidate for a scholarship. Include information on your academics, journalism experience, financial need, and professional goals.
- Journalism work samples:
  - For all applications, please submit 3-5 examples of your journalism work (published in the last year).
  - For those who wish to be considered for the Karmel Award for Sports Journalism, please submit 3-5 samples of your published sports journalism since Jan. 1 of the previous year (so 2022 for a Spring 2023 application).
  - If you do not have recent work samples, you can still apply but will not be considered for all awards.

Answer the following questions:

List the Journalism Courses you have taken so far:

Journalism activities: Briefly summarize your participation in relevant extracurricular activities (Daily Campus, UCTV, SPJ, etc.), internships, or any other journalism activities.

Other activities: List other extracurricular activities

Career goals: Briefly describe your interests in journalism and your professional goals.

Financial need: Do you have financial need? Briefly describe your financial need, including other sources of support, need to work during the semester, your family situation, etc.